

Student Name:

Date:

Study for Quiz on BGB on Self Doubt and Self Acceptance

- To prepare, you should review your annotations and be familiar with major plot events and details about characters, conflict and challenges that they face and setting.
- You should also be familiar with the purpose of the author(s). What is the message behind this book?

Here are some questions that you should be able to answer:

1. What is the full name of the main character or what are the names of central participants that the book focuses on?
2. Who are members of the main character's family or the people that support or associate with the central participants?
3. Where does the book start? What is the setting?
4. What identity events or concerns are the author(s) focused on in the book? List at least two. Why are they important?
5. What do other people say to the main characters to harm or hurt their identity? List two quotes.
6. What do other people say to the main characters to support or embrace their identity? List two quotes.

Student Name:

Date:

7. What conduct or behavior shows the IDENTITY CHALLENGES that the main characters or participants face?
8. What are some of the social conditions in the book that create pressure for the main characters or participants?
9. What are some of the consequences that the main characters or participants have to deal with or confront?
10. How do the decisions of the main characters or participants impact society?
11. How do the decisions of the main characters or participants lead to other problems
12. What do you believe is the author's main purpose in writing the book? What is important?
13. What is a major precept from the book that relates to

Student Name:

Date:

the best way to solve questions about IDENTITY?